FC 37 COUNCILLOR REPORTS

Worman	Mentioned attending SBC Resources & Corporate Scrutiny meeting and a discussion took place on improving sharing performance data with Parish Councils, and more and better understanding of CIL payments. Stated SBC should budget for LED flashing lights to be added to this Thames Avenue in the future.
Jackson	Concerns from residents re the Thames Avenue level crossing and the meeting confirmed SBC has agreed for it to be repainted.
Venkatesh	Requested clarification on the Councillor Co-option selection criteria. The Chairman will discuss with Cllr Venkatesh following meeting.
Rodgers	Query re when and where the Amenities Team take their breaks.
McDermott	Informed May 4 th Bank Holiday in 2020 has been changed to Friday 8 th May and this may present an opportunity to have an event.
Heyes	Suggests coordinating with St Andrews PC re hedge cutting areas opposite the Parishes. To discuss further at A&L. Explained there are (90) unadopted roads in North Swindon that SBC has shown no interest in adopting. In the future this means residents will miss out on fast fibre broadband speeds, potentially 5G and car charging from lampposts. Councillor Heyes has approached Virgin about trialing deploying their services using BT ducts rather than digging up streets (which they can't anyway because they are unadopted).

John Has ideas for VE commemoration events. It was suggested this is discussed further at the Community Engagement working party meeting.

Baker Lee Stream by James Wilkes is foul smelling. Residents have contacted SBC with no progress. Can the PC help to escalate the issue?

Manro Reiterated SBC Resources & Corporate Scrutiny discussion and raised opportunity for Parish Council to share information as part of the Wiltshire Information Sharing Charter. Agreed to put this onto the July P&F agenda.

FC 38 SWINDON BOROUGH WARD COUNCILLOR REPORTS

D Renard Advance notice that along Ealing Way the surface has sunk and due for repair which will involve closing the road in August. Actual date to be advised but will be published in Highways and Members' Bulletin.
