Dear Clerk

As you may be aware, the Boundary Commission for England have just commenced a consultation on their recommendations for the 2023 Parliamentary Boundary Review. You can find further details below, including the recommendations and the process open to comment upon them should your parish council wish to make an official response. The deadline for responses is Monday 2 August.

he 2023 Boundary Review – Initial Proposals for new Parliamentary constituency boundaries

The Boundary Commission for England has today published its initial proposals for new constituency boundaries. The proposals and maps for the nine English regions have been published on the website today. The eight-week public consultation period has commenced. This will be the first time the public will get a chance to see what their new constituencies might look like, and give the Commission their views on the proposals.

For the 2023 Review, the Commission is promoting use of a specifically-designed consultation website as the primary tool for displaying our proposals, and receiving comments on them. This is available at www.bcereviews.org.uk

Best Wishes,
Matt.
