Memory Café Co Ordinator's Recommendations

1. To note report.

Recent Session

On the 13th of August 2022 the Memory Café had Singing for the Brain hosted by Debra. This is always a fantastic session, it lifts everyone and the room lights up with smiles.

Working Towards

1. The Floristry workshop will be held on the 27th July 2022 in the Memory Café. Led by Darry, Administration Assistant in the Parish office.
2. Fish 'n' Chip Friday for the residents of the memory café and the over sixties has now sold out.
3. Networking and contacting different small businesses, to bring latest ideas for activities, information and stimulation to the residents and their carers who attend, and to attract new members.
4. Thames Water due to join us soon to provide a chat on discounts to help support the vulnerable and those struggling in the financial climate.
5. A local solicitor will attend soon and give information on Power of Attorneys, changes in the law and answer any questions.
6. Avon and Wiltshire Mental Health Partnership NHS Trust is due to attend in September, to bring its knowledge of the latest treatments and research into Dementia and Alzheimer's.
7. An offsite visit to Richard Jefferies Museum is planned with a tour of the museum, slideshow and refreshments.
8. Planning a trip to Lotmead Farm at Wanborough with half price admission.
9. Haydon Wick Bowls Club has kindly offered their social area to hold a Memory Café.
